TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

COME NOW, Travelers Lloyds of Texas Insurance Company and Charles McClinton, the defendants in the above entitled and numbered cause, and files this their original answer to the plaintiff's original petition on file herein, and in support thereof would respectfully show the Court as follows:

I.

The defendants hereby generally deny the allegations contained in the plaintiff's petition on file herein pursuant to Rule 92 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, and thus assert their privilege of insisting that such allegations be proven by a preponderance of credible evidence.

II.

Pursuant to Rule 193.7 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, the defendants notify all parties to this lawsuit of the defendants' intent to introduce as evidence at any pretrial proceeding or at trial any document produced by any party in discovery in this lawsuit.

III.

The defendants specifically reserve the right to amend their answer to plead any affirmative defenses or other matters that must be specially pled and to assert any counterclaims or third-party claims they may have after discovery in this case is complete.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, the defendants, Travelers Lloyds of Texas Insurance Company and Charles McClinton, move and pray the Court that upon trial hereof, the plaintiff recover nothing, and that the defendants go hence with their costs, and for such other and further relief, both general and special, legal and equitable, to which defendants may show themselves justly entitled to receive.

Respectfully submitted,
